Reverend Edwin Schick, O.F.M.
Senior Religion Teacher

June 7, 1956

Dear Diary,

As I sit here writing the final pages of this year—my last at Our Lady of Angels High School—my mind pauses in retrospect over the joys and even the disappointments of 1955-1956.

Impressions are lasting, they say. Perhaps that is the reason why I felt that these particular impressions should be put into our yearbook, so fittingly entitled "Amaranth."

Opening day was a little different from most years. Confusion reigned as students, old and new, roamed the halls in search of recently numbered classrooms. Freshies, in particular, were delighted at the sight of their lost "big sisters."

After a few days, school life resumed its normal pattern: classes, homework, and a host of drives. To lighten the burdens, we had dances, sports events, and class activities. Occasionally, we enjoyed outside talent.

That star-studded night, Friday, April 13, had no superstitious significance. In reality, it was a night to be remembered—the night of the Junior-Senior Prom. Margie Vitale was a lovely and charming queen.

Then came Graduation. The first glimpse of my snowy white cap and gown sent chills running through me. I realized it was the end of one phase of my life and the beginning of another.

Mingled with these thoughts is another long-lasting impression, left by my beloved Senior religion teacher, Reverend Edwin Schick, O.F.M. Really, his spiritual guidance helped me tremendously this year. Through him, I gained a real insight into the true devotion to Mary. He actually radiates Mary in his acceptance of joys and disappointments, in his religious instructions, in his dramatic assemblies, and in his original musical compositions.

In recognition of the lasting impression that he has made during his fourteen-year association with Our Lady of Angels High School, the Seniors of 1956 dedicate this yearbook of memories to him.

In grateful appreciation,

One of Our Lady's Angels

The welcoming angel heralds the development of the whole individual . . .

In Our High School Workshop...

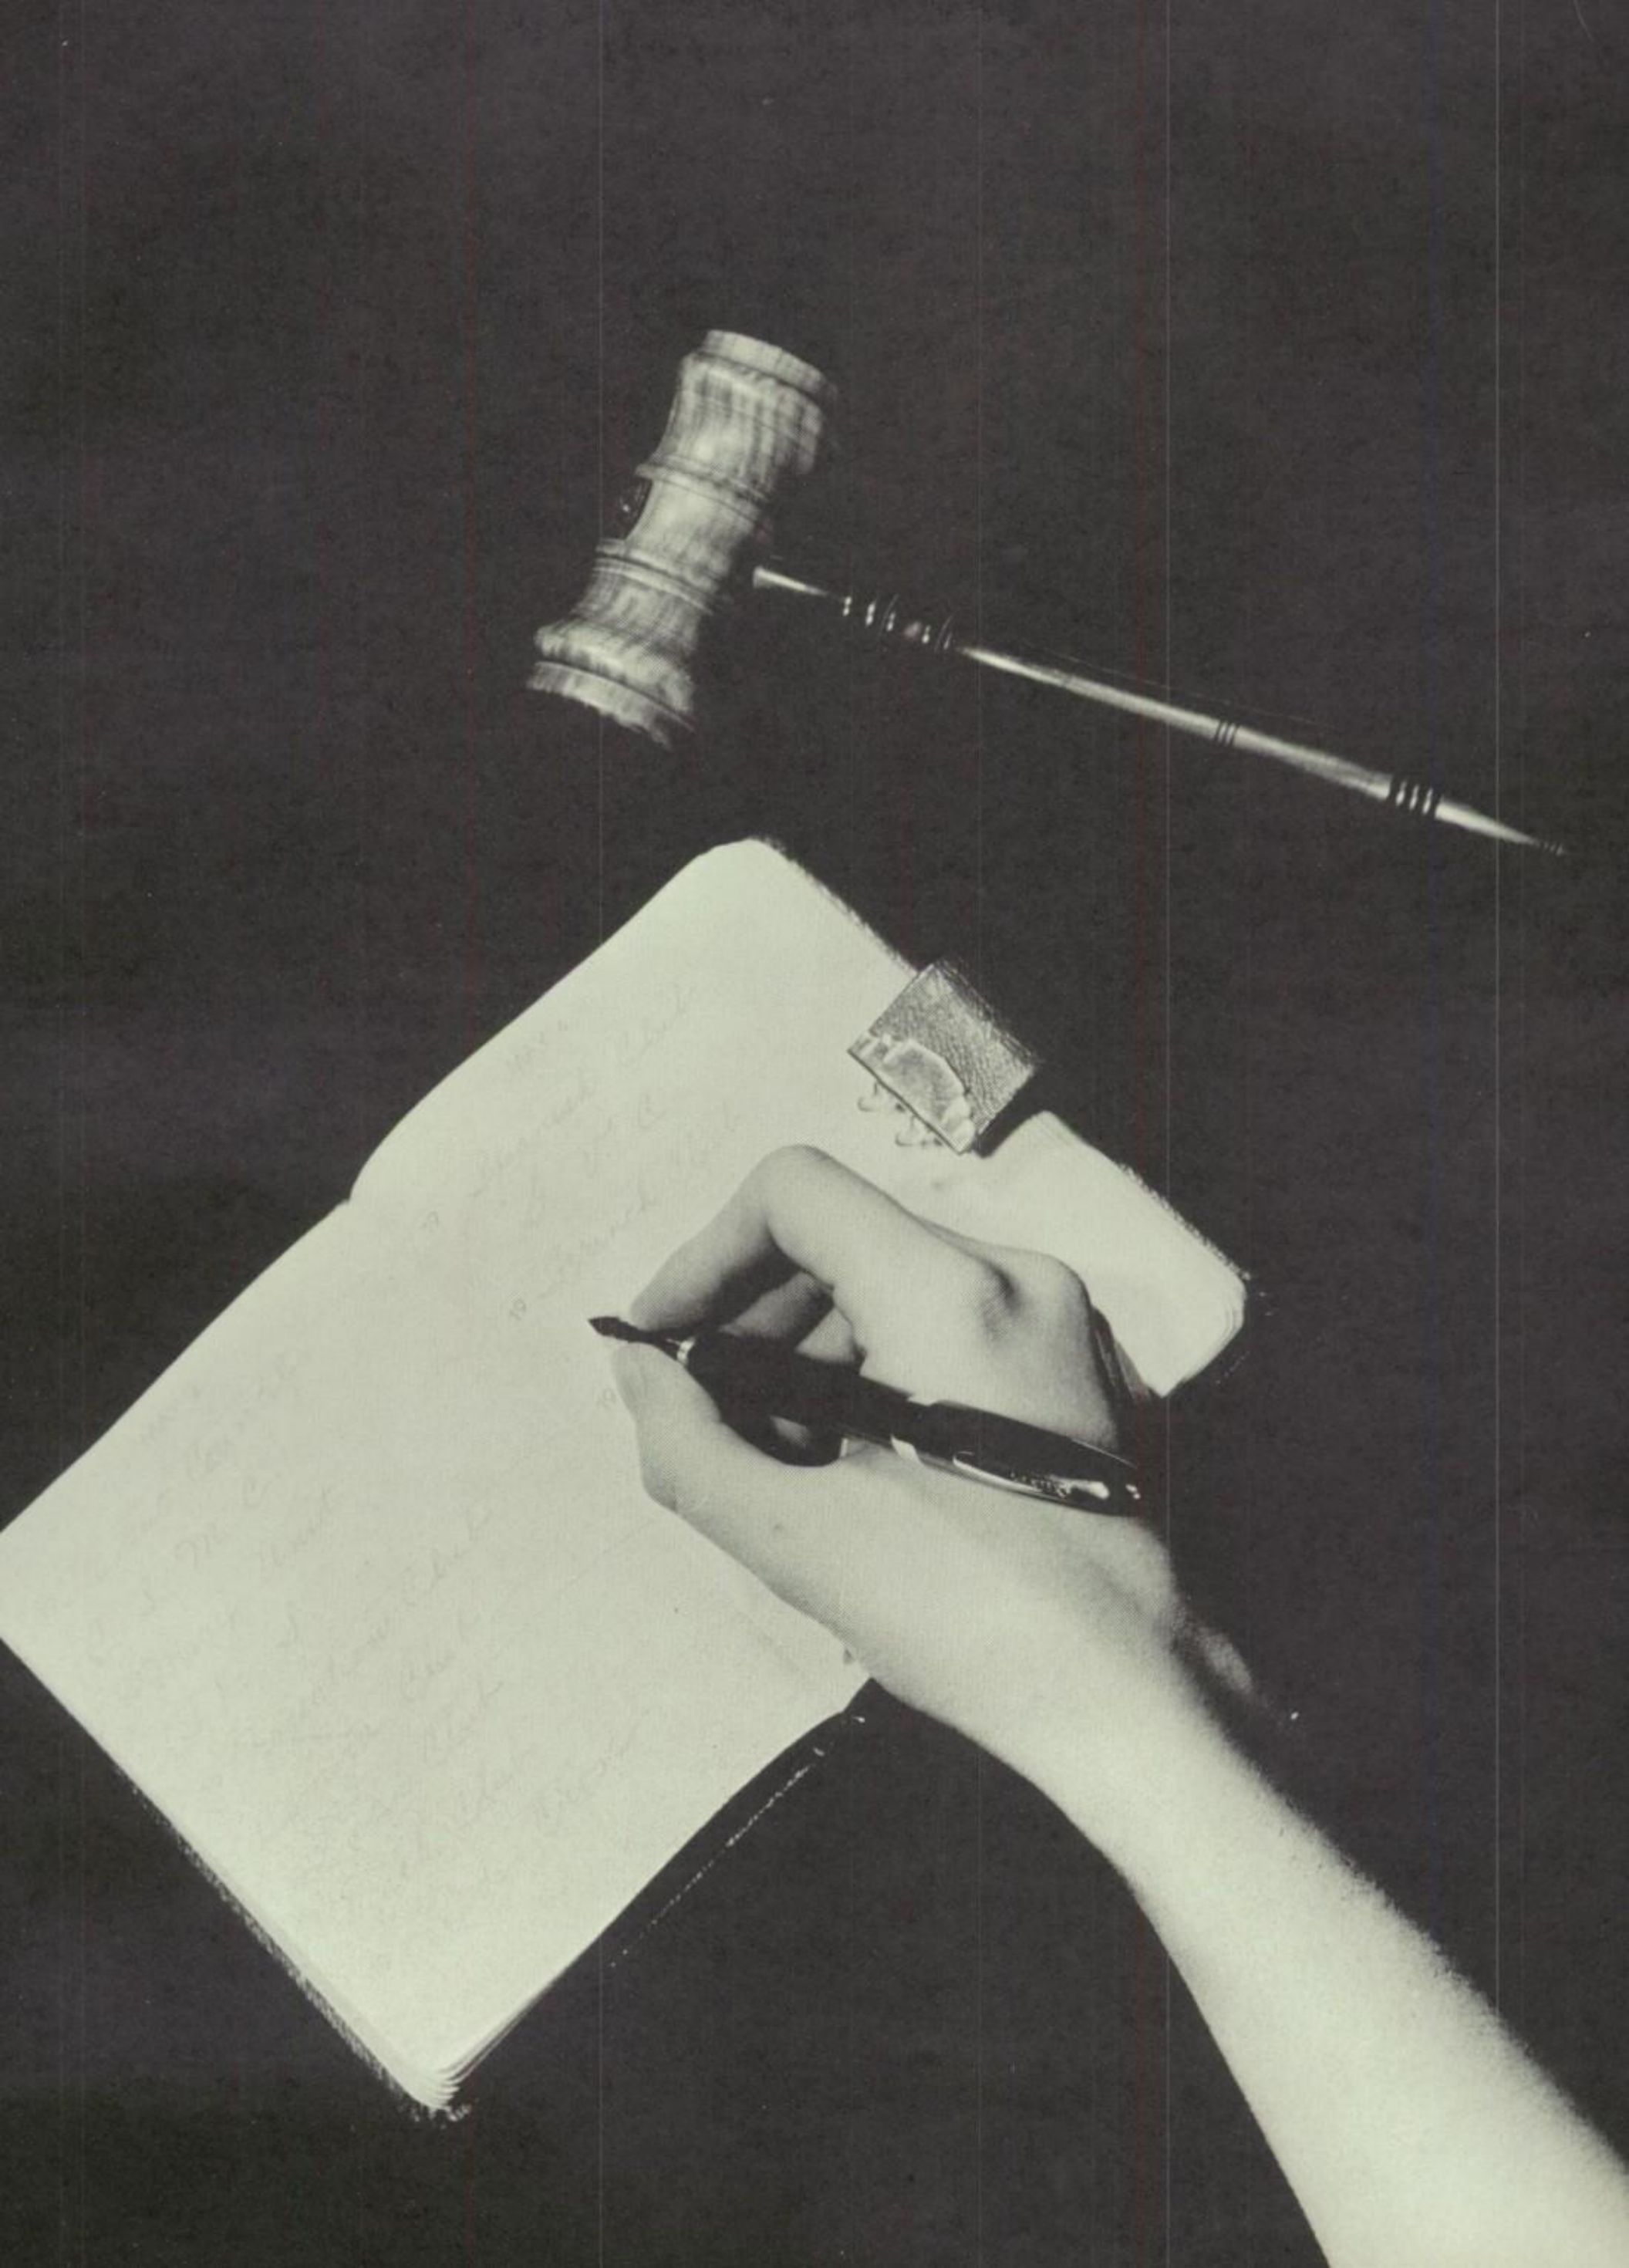

We Grow in Wisdom . . .

... and in Culture

Our Governing Body...

Mary Lou Brueckner and Helena Schnittker consult with Pat Sullivan, president, on the future activities of the Student Council. Sister Barbara Ann, O.S.F., is moderator.

Considering the helpful suggestions of the student body are the representatives of this organization:
Standing: J. Kelly, B. O'Brien, S. Moedl, P. Kelleher, V. Burger, A. Stegemann, and M. Mastruserio.
Sitting: J. Schmidt, B. Willke, K. Knecht, P. Franks, and M. Wedding.

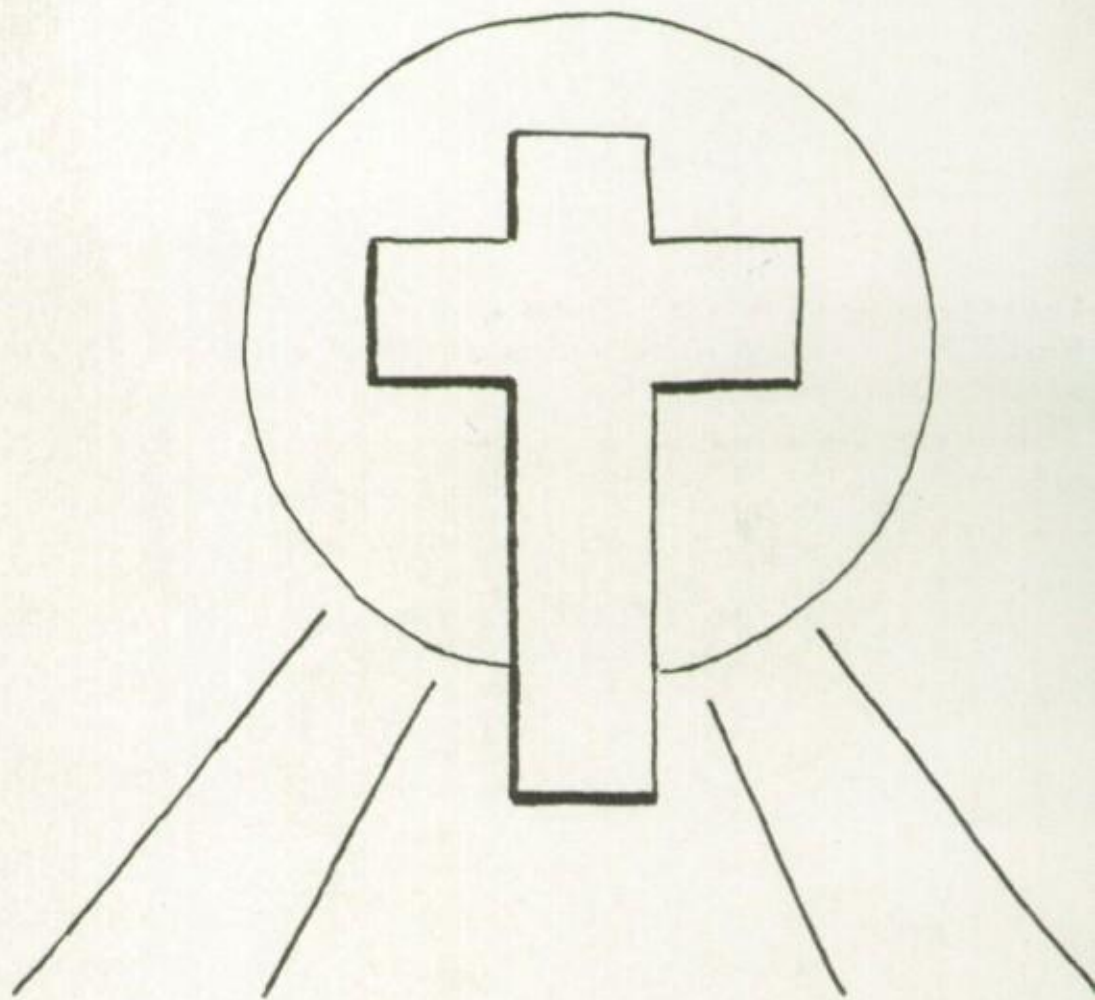

These representatives of the Student Council and also of the Safety Council study posters and pamphlets for High School Safety Week. Standing: Pat Sullivan, Lois Rieckhoff, Anita Dreiling, and Carol Smith. Sitting: Dolores Born, Betty Eppinghoff, and Helena Schnittker.

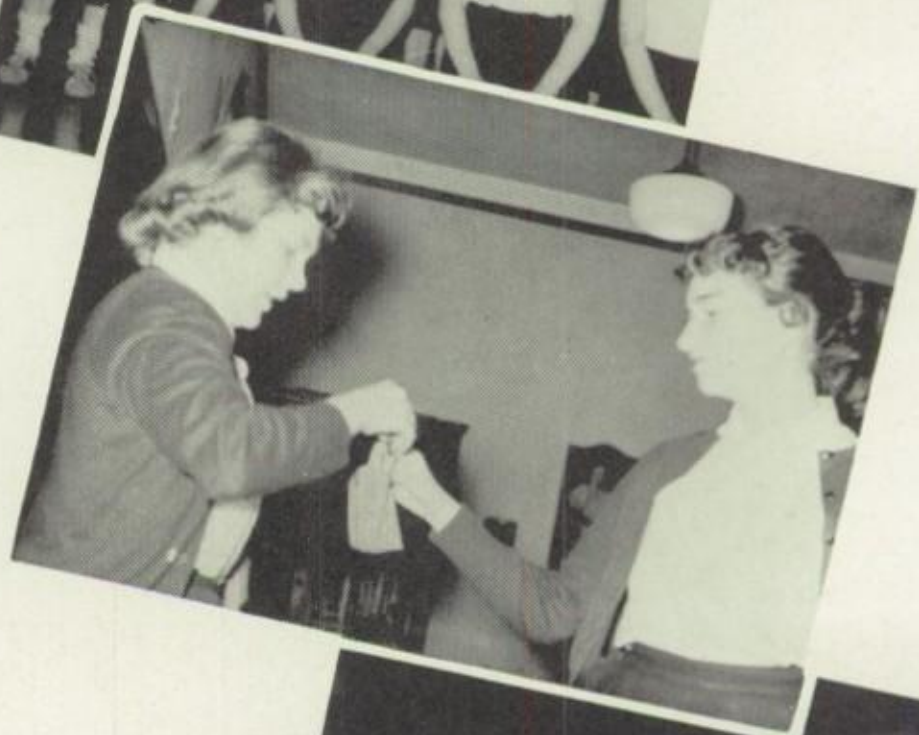

Several students participate in coaching grade school children in Saturday religion classes, supervised by Sister Geraldine Marie and Sister Marta.

Friends of the Missions . . .

Christ commanded the Apostles "to teach all nations." Each student on the home front can help the missions. Subscribing to mission magazines, collecting stamps, selling stuffed animals, and gathering old clothes for the Bishops' Clothing Drive are a few of the activities carried on by the school unit of the Catholic Students' Mission Crusade. The C.S.M.C. representatives for the year are as follows: First Row: M. A. Wolterman, M. J. McGuinness, J. Gasdorf, R. Feldhaus, J. Peters, M. Hughes, M. J. Kaestle, G. Thamann, C. Becker. Second Row: R. Bosse, R. Novello, B. Manyet, G. Matthews, C. Cosgrove, B. Robers, M. Clark, C. A. Hester.

Victory beams on the faces of R. Feldhaus, M. A. Barrow, V. Reischl, third, first, and second winners respectively in the school C.S.M.C. oratoricals.

C.S.M.C. officers admire the trophy awarded at the city-wide oratorical contest: Mary Ellen Boylan, vice-president; Joan Schaeper, secretary; and Carol Osborne, president.

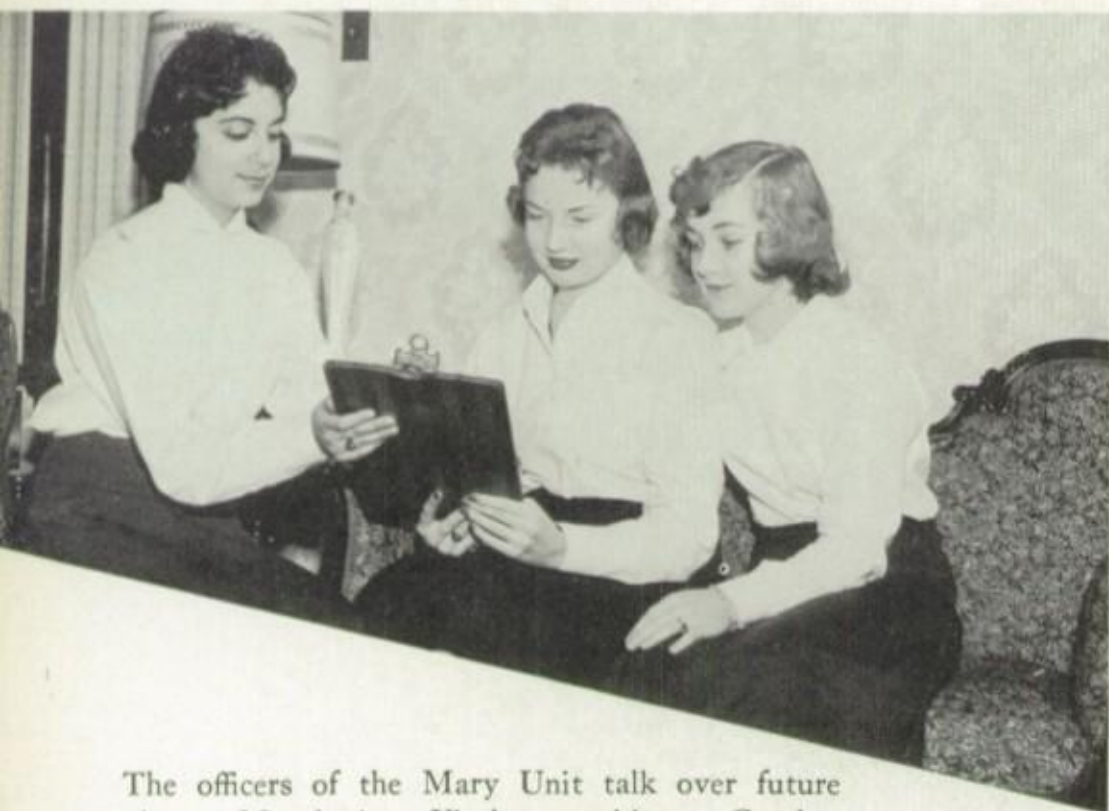

Hard work reaps success as proved by these semi-finalists in the school C.S.M.C. contest.

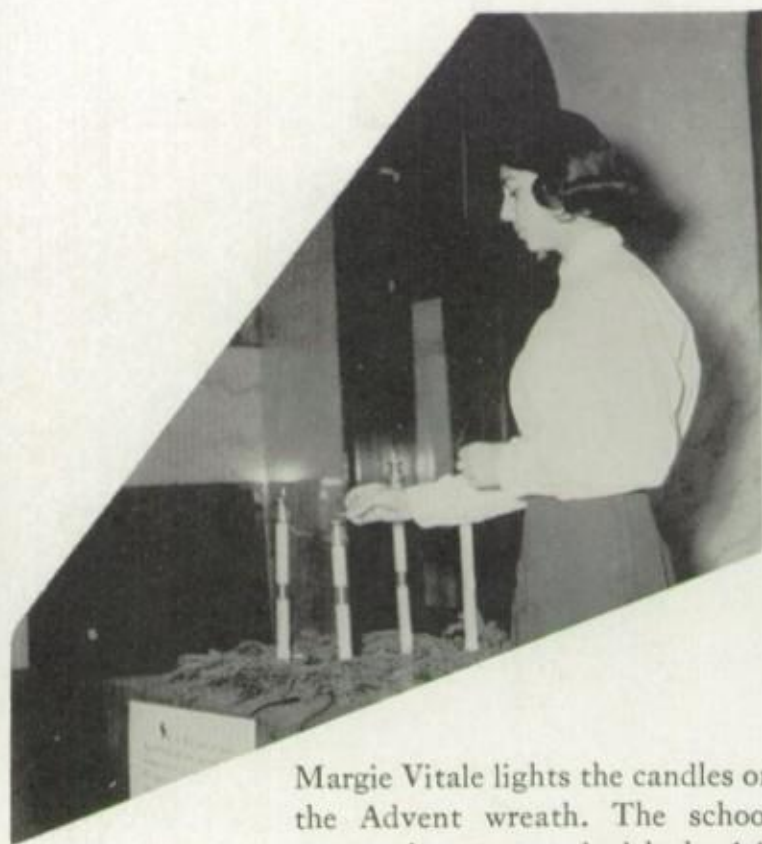

"The Lord loves a cheerful giver." That "little green bag" has become a symbol of sacrifice to the O.L.A. members of the C.S.M.C.

These crusaders are having a gay time at the money-raising dance for the missions sponsored by the C.S.M.C.

Moderator—Sister Geraldine Marie, O.S.F.

The officers of the Mary Unit talk over future plans: Margherita Vitale, president; Carolyn Doppes, vice-president; and Pat Throm, secretary.

Margie Vitale lights the candles on the Advent wreath. The school ceremonies connected with the Advent wreath are carried on by the Mary Unit.

Handmaids of Mary...

Sister Eymard, O.S.F.—Moderator

The Mary Unit sponsors many of the school's spiritual activities including the outdoor Living Rosary processions in honor of our Blessed Mother in October and May. These are the officers and representatives: First Row: R. Mills, J. Kollstedt, D. Groh, R. Borchers, A. M. Veid, R. Benoit. Second Row: V. Spaulding, A. Heidebrink, A. Rogers, P. Throm, M. L. Yenke, B. McKeague. Third Row: J. Hascamp, A. Bonvillain, M. Niemeier, C. Doppes, M. Leach, W. Boyle, C. Lamping, M. Vitale.

"Supply the demand—demand the supply" is the motto of the S.D.S. It endeavors to prove that modesty can be fashionable and decent literature can be popular. Shown reading the particulars about the magazine drive for decent literature are the following: M. Courtot, J. Meents, K. Kesterman, Jill Wiesman, A. Lewis, C. Harlin, N. Payne.

Modesty is the Best Policy...

Shown modeling modest clothes made in the home economics classes are M. Burkhardt, T. Henlein, J. Even, M. Ginal, J. Zeis.

Sister Michael Louise, O.S.F., is moderator of the Latin organizations.

The B.A.L. members admiring the features of the Auxilium Latinum and the Stella Romana are Standing: E. Kearns, R. Servizzi, J. Poston, C. Lamping, M. L. Schlasinger, L. Owens, G. Spoehrer, M. J. Kaestle. Sitting: H. Russo, B. Anderson, D. Chappie, B. Knipe, V. Reischl, M. E. O'Brien, P. Krue.

Veni, Vidi, Vici

The French Club, Entre Nous, has for its objective a deeper understanding of French life and culture. Activities to promote this aim are carried on especially at semi-monthly meetings. The celebration of French week was a high point in Entre Nous's program for 1955-1956. The girls are Standing: A. Zimmerman, S. Turner, M. Nelson. Sitting: B. Albers, D. Hughes.

Parlez-vous francais?

First Row: M. Logsdon, J. Schuler, B. Smithers, P. Stahl, S. Reynolds. Second Row: D. Born, K. Collins, C. Lowe, J. Frank. Third Row: B. Hamons, P. Petersen, S. Teed, M. Driscoll, J. Connors, C. A. Allendorf, M. Klueh, J. Walpe, J. Ebbers.

Sister Michael Louise, O.S.F., is moderator of the Latin organizations.

OLA's hardworking Spanish Club has been accepted by the Latin American Fundamental Education Press. The officers, aided by enthusiastic members, contributed their time and effort collecting and sending informative literature to many Spanish speaking countries.

First Row: E. Matje, C. Stavale, J. Zurenko, A. Rogers.

Así es la vida!

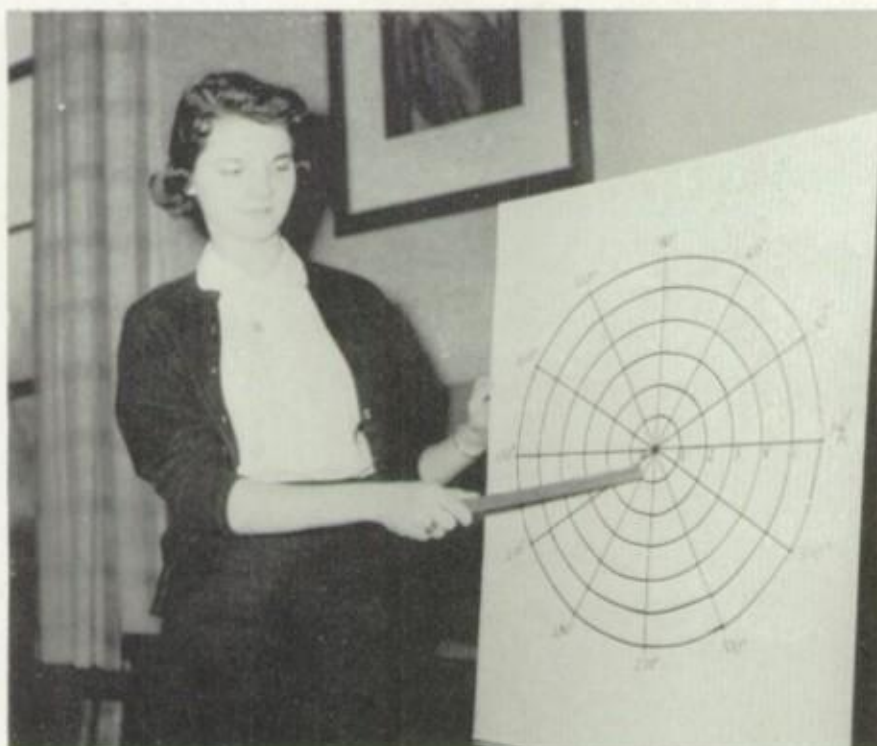

First Row: E. Meeker, M. K. Burkart, E. Matje, A. Simpkins, F. Sansone. Second Row: L. Carter, N. Fischer, M. Brausch, D. Hardig, M. L. Zenni, K. Walsh. Third Row: L. Ettig, M. McEnemy, C. Becker, E. Perrmann, J. Detzel.

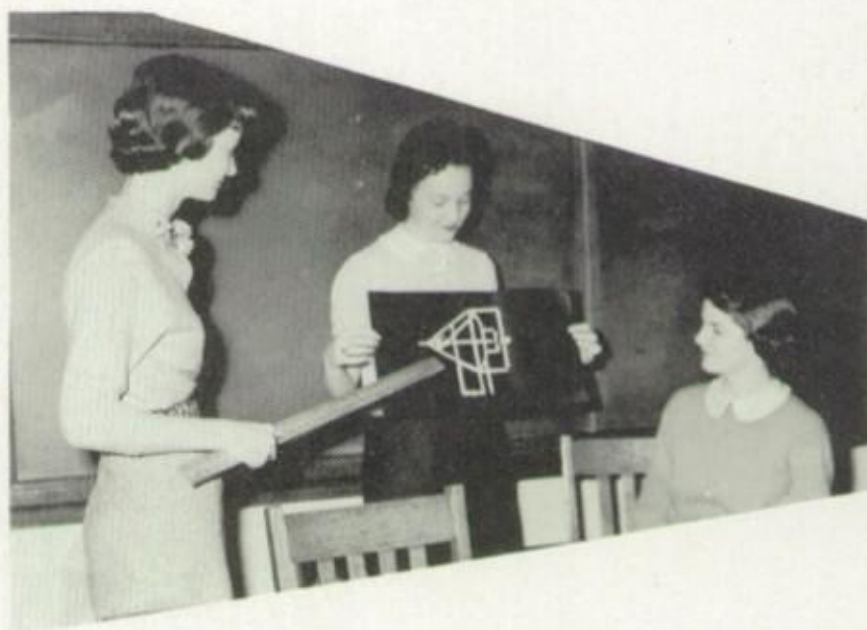

Sister Marta, O.S.F., is in charge of these Americanized "senoritas."

First Row: M. Bonfield, C. Theis, J. Zurenko, A. Rogers. Second Row: K. Twohig, R. Kohake, M. Reichhardt, J. Peters, C. Stavale. Third Row: E. Breitfelder, K. Stieritz, R. Marcum, C. Sandel, P. Ulm, J. McGuinness.

Anita Dreiling is shown illustrating her prize-winning essay, "The Brief Study of Cartesian and Polar Co-ordinates."

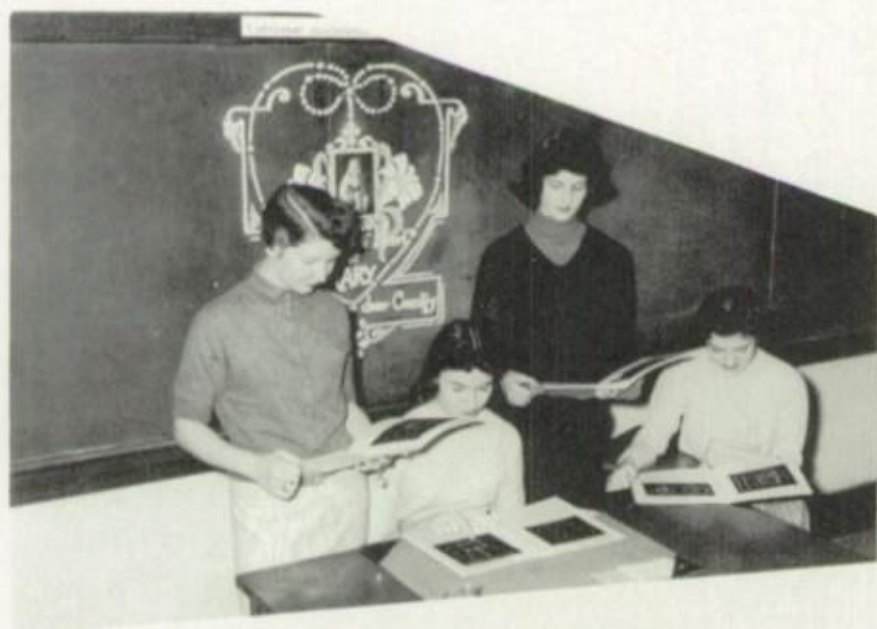

Mary Jane McGuinness explains the diagram held by Mary Lou Brueckner. Anita Dreiling merely looks puzzled.

Mathematical Geniuses?

Sister Geraldine Marie, O.S.F., moderator of the Duns Scotus Chapter of the National Mathematics Honor Society, is trying to explain to a few of her doubting students that math can really be interesting.

Marian Kief, treasurer, Pauline Franks, president, and Geraldine Rettig, secretary, show that even modern industry uses geometric design in the packaging of Christmas candy.

Mary Uhrig, Joan Gasdorf, Pat Cannon, and Diane Chappie concentrate on some difficult math problems.

Watch the Birdie!

The Camera Club claims many ace photographers as members. Barbara West, center, served as the first president of this organization. Standing behind her, left to right, are the other "shutterbugs": D. Donnellon, M. Fitzpatrick, M. Browning, R. Robenish, C. Parson, J. Monahan, M. Kaiser, L. Kindt, secretary, P. Kelleher, M. Schmidt, M. Wunder, R. Klefas, V. Grewe. Sister Mary Edward, O.S.F., served as moderator.

Lights! Camera! Action!

Joan Schuler explains the use of the projector to members of the Projection Club.
Seated: J. Korte, J. Wietmarschen, M. L. Schlasinger, M. Stigler, R. Holthaus. Standing: A. Godfrey, C. Ordon, M. Niemeier, A. Lewis, M. A. Flamm, R. Bosse. Sister Barbara Ann, O.S.F., supervised instructions.

Which Road Shall I Follow?

The Good Counsel Club, under the direction of Sister Mary Clarice, O.S.F., through sponsored meetings and movies, provides counsel and information for girls entering all walks of life.

Energetic officers of this group include M. J. Kaestle, activity chairman; A. Godfrey, vice-president; M. A. Hofmann, president; N. Fisher, recording secretary; C. Morrell, secretary.

The poster, "Brides of Christ," receives special attention from D. Rohman, A. Franzzone, D. Topper, T. Seefried. Standing: C. Murphy, J. Schuler, C. Ordon, M. L. Leporis, M. L. Yenke.

Investigating the teaching profession are the following: First Row: B. Willke, B. Bolles, T. Henlein, R. Kohake. Second Row: M. Jasper, V. Burger.

General careers for girls warrant consideration from First Row: C. Stavale, S. Reynolds. Second Row: C. Ostenkamp, T. Grant, M. G. Haeuffe, J. Peters. Third Row: J. Behrmann, M. Driscoll, M. Dirr, B. Knipe.

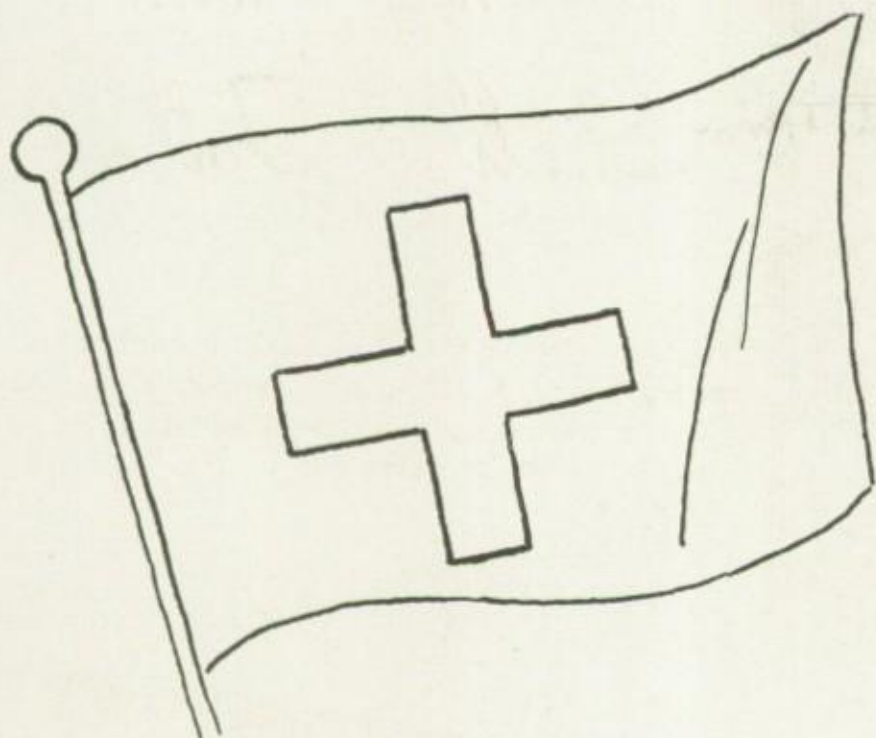

Pertinent questions concerning the marriage state are asked by the following: Sitting: M. A. Hofmann, A. Stark. Standing: C. Becker, J. Connors, C. Cosgrove, S. Macke, S. Moedl.

Nurses-to-be in some future endeavor include K. Ryan, J. Scheeler, and L. Collins.

The Cross of Hope...

Charitable-minded members of the Red Cross, under the direction of Sister Jane Frances, O.S.F., and Sister Lillian Marie, O.S.F., have busily engaged in a variety of projects. Their activities included the making of cartoon scrapbooks and stuffed animals. They provided favors and a vocal entertainment for the County Home. The members are as follows: First Row: D. Donnellon, C. Morrell, C. Kuderer, V. Oxier, R. Woycke, C. Klocke, V. Grewe. Second Row: K. Collins, S. Stark, A. Meiners, J. Born, R. Mangano, L. Mathes, G. Archile, C. Deters. Third Row: C. Cosgrove, V. Burger, C. Buker, M. Logsdon, J. Radcliffe, M. L. LePoris.

Strictly Senior...

Our infant Senior Club has matured into a full fledged organization under the direction of Dorothy Rusche, president; Mimi Feistel, treasurer; Betty Huy, vice-president; Bernie Noonan, secretary; Joan Weisner.

Sister Richard Marie, O.S.F., moderator.

The members of the various committees of the Senior Club planned activities and entertainment for the enjoyment of the seniors.

Saintly Seniors!

Athletically Speaking . . .

Members of the Girls' Athletic Organization Board for 1955-1956 include the following: First Row: B. Manyet, secretary-treasurer; M. A. Barrow, vice-president; J. Duerr, president; J. Davis, publicity and social chairman; R. McAllister, basketball manager. Second Row: G. Shepherd, tennis manager; P. Ulm, tumbling manager; R. Bacigalupo, bowling manager; T. Amaranth Angels...

The AMARANTH staff has completed its work for this year. The entire job is finished. Every person on the staff has said "Good-bye" to hard work that wasn't really minded and "Hello" to the lasting pleasure of our results.

Keeping busy with the lay-outs are the artists: K. Mathis, J. Schuler, C. Ordon, C. Siebenthaler.

Shutters were clicking constantly behind the lens of B. West, L. Kindt, A. Godfrey, S. Branno.

The typists whose steady staccato could be heard daily are P. Throm, P. Sullivan, K. Knecht, P. Gehrich, J. Gasdorf, M. Uhrig.

No archaeologists have ever dug deeper for catchy phrases than our "write-up crew": D. Wolf, M. Hart, G. Rettig, P. Mead, A. Dreiling.

Where would the annual be if it weren't for the pushing of the business managers, J. Weisner, M. L. Krieger, R. Costello, J. Schaeper?

These co-workers added an important part to the AMARANTH: L. Pope, R. Walter, A. Bonvillain, V. Reischl.

C. Doppes, typist, supervises those "last minute" additions.

Writers of Tomorrow...

The journalistic efforts at O.L.A. have been reflected in the fine editions of OUR LADY'S HERALD. Who knows? Maybe a future famous literary figure has worked in the "cupboard" this year. The editors of the HERALD are the following: A. Heidebrink, M. J. McGuiness, B. Puthoff, L. Kindt.
